

*Ben
Exec.
Producer*

When he isn't triumphing over his employees at Mario Kart, Ben leads BX Films's agile, creative approach to video production. At work he's a determined creative. At home he's a specialist at fort building, tea parties, and Netflix.

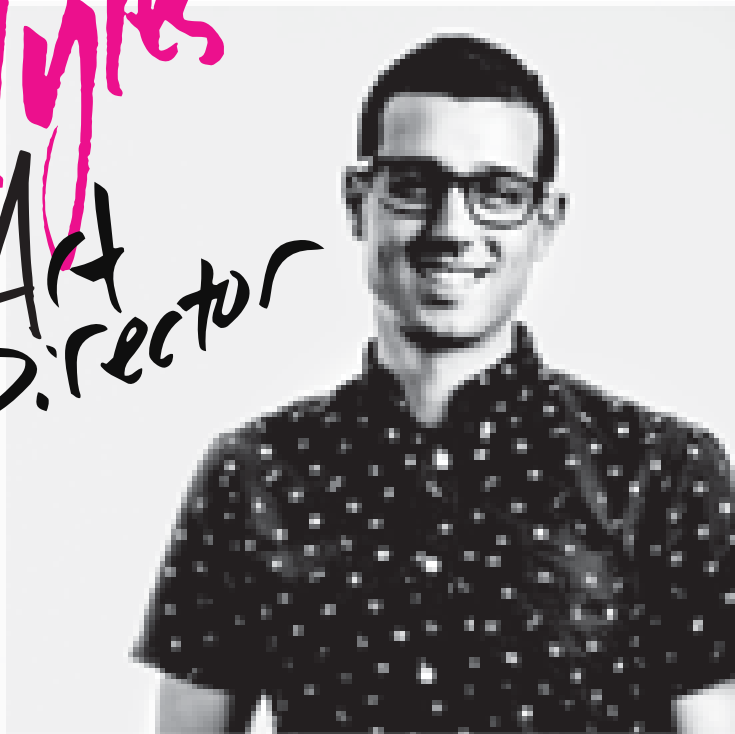

*Kevin
Partner Specialist*

Kevin's always been great at building partnerships, and his smile will warm your heart like an episode of Mr. Rogers Neighborhood. When Kevin was 6 his parents lost him, but when they finally found him a couple hours later, he had already built a little company called Apple.*

*Not a true story.

*Myles
Art
Director*

As Art Director, Myles makes decisions both big and small. From "let's film in this mid-century modern house with minimalist bright airy set design" to "move that plant half an inch to the right... ok back an eighth inch to the left... ok that's perfect."

*Beau
Producer*

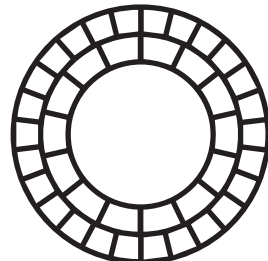

As Producer, Beau spearhead the details of our projects. Details like "Get the Director a Snickers bar so they don't get hangry" and "finish video on budget" and "do we have 5 minutes for a quick Mario Kart break?" He's never let us deliver a video late, but he has lost at Mario Kart. A LOT.
