

Director/Producer/Acting Coach/ Educator - Tom Todoroff

Founder & Artistic Director of the Tom Todoroff Acting Studio in New York City

With branches in twenty six cities, five countries worldwide.

Tom has coached, directed, produced and/or acted opposite: Sasha Alexander, Joan Allen, Josh Charles, Blythe Danner, Claire Danes, Lolita Davidovich, Harrison Ford, Richard Gere, Brendan Gleeson, Tony Goldwyn, Joel Grey, Bob Hoskins, Helen Hunt, Samuel L. Jackson, Bianca Jagger, Allison Janney, Cherry Jones, Tommy Lee Jones, Carl Lewis, Lucy Liu, Eric McCormack, Sienna Miller, Liam Neeson, Peter O'Toole, Gwyneth Paltrow, Christina Ricci and Rene Russo... to name just a few!

Tom is a Juilliard-trained actor who studied directly with Stella Adler, Edith Skinner and Kristin Linklater. Tom went on to enjoy working relationships with Michael Shurtleff (Broadway casting director and author of "Audition"), Cicely Berry (Voice Director for the Royal Shakespeare Company), Harold Guskin (author of "How to Stop Acting") and Larry Moss (author of "The Intent to Live") in addition to leading lectures at Harvard University and the USC Cinematic Art graduate program, giving him un-rivaled experience in the education of actors.

His business experience, including appearances in many films and on television; producer credits on multiple feature films and CBS Television, give him insight to the entertainment business that few educators can bring to the table.

Aspiring or experienced actors, directors, writers, producers, performers and entrepreneurs of all kinds will benefit tremendously from Tom's deeply personalized approach to this work. Living life without blocks - discovering what you truly love and how to turn it into a fulfilling career - balancing the art, the business and the spirituality of an acting career - learning to become a "professional human being"... Tom teaches tools to succeed in the entertainment business, and in life -- for everyone.